AMCHAM Appoints Antony Lee as new Chair and announces new Governors for 2021

KUALA LUMPUR, 30 June 2021 - The Governors of the American Malaysian Chamber of Commerce (AMCHAM) have appointed Antony Lee, CEO of AIG Malaysia Insurance Berhad to be their new chairman. Antony has been an active participant in the Chamber since he successfully stood for election to the Board in 2018.

Joining Antony on the Board are six other Governors also elected for the two year term, 2021-2023: They are Datuk Timothy Garland, Director & CEO, START/TBWA KL; Chin Keat Chyuan, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Sdn Bhd; Steve Clayton, CEO, J.P. Morgan Chase Bank Berhad; Dato' P'ng Soo Hong, Managing Director, First Solar Malaysia Sdn. Bhd.; Soon K Kuek, General Manager, Lam Manufacturing Malaysia & Senior Director of Manufacturing; Usman Ahmed, CEO, Citibank.

In addition, for a single year term 2021-2022, Dave Mitchell, Vice President and General Manager, Manufacturing and Distribution, Boston Scientific, joins Naeem Shahab Khan, Managing Director, Philip Morris Malaysia; Anushia Soosaipillai, Partner, PwC Malaysia; and Robin Martin, Managing Director, Malaysian Site, Intel Corporation who are serving out their remaining terms.

AMCHAM is delighted to see the addition of these members to the Chamber's leadership team and looks forward to leveraging their skills and experience to be a stronger voice for U.S. businesses in Malaysia.

"We are committed to serving our members and I am excited to take on this role during these difficult times. With the strong relationships we have with the ministries that we work closely with, we are confident that the Chamber will continue to contribute to the recovery of our economy as well as support both new investors and existing companies looking to expand further in Malaysia," said Antony Lee.

"The Chamber has played an extremely important role for our members during these challenging times. AMCHAM strives to maintain a strong relationship with the government. This pandemic has brought new challenges and we have to keep reminding ourselves that we are all in this together and we must continue to actively collaborate to get through this. I am proud to be given this opportunity by the Governors and look forward to growing the Chamber with the support of all our members.”

Siobhan Das, CEO of AMCHAM, also commented, “The diversity in sectoral representation at the Board allows the Chamber to consider key issues from multiple perspectives. This provides strength to our positions but also allows us to understand quickly evolving business models and the needs of an increasingly dynamic global trading environment. We are delighted to welcome Antony into this position along with all the other Governors at what might be one of the most seminal moments for businesses in this country.”
